

PRESS RELEASE

GOVT. COLLEGE OF EDUCATION 25/02/2020

Two weeks FDP concludes at GCOE

First ever Faculty Development Programme (FDP) of the Higher Education Department concluded today at Govt. College of Education, Jammu . This was a 14 days training programme. Around 25 resource persons from reputed universities across India such as JNU , AMU , Jamia Miliaria , GNDU , etc delivered lectures under this programme.

A valedictory function was organised on the occasion. Advisor to Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor, Mr. K.K. Sharma, was the chief guest on this occasion. In his address he appreciated the efforts of organising team and the participants for the successful completion of comprehensive FDP course. He also exhorted upon the role of Govt. College of Education in providing platform to the future teachers at the higher education level. Secretary Higher Education Janab Talat Parvez Rohella, Higher Education Department, J&K Govt. and Hon'ble Vice Chancellor CLUJ , Dr. Anju Bhasin were also present on the occasion.

Secretary Mr. Rohella apprised the gathering about the various programmes being launched by the Higher Education Department for the upliftment of teaching , learning and research in the state. He said that since education is the backbone of the society, the department will provide all logistic support to its members for the betterment of Higher Education in the State.

VC CLUJ expressed her happiness about the successful completion of the programme. She also advised that participants from other states can also be invited to take part in these programmes in future.

Dr. Sangita Nagari, Principal GCOE, in her welcome address stated that Secretary , Higher Education , Mr. Talat Parvez Rohella has given new dimensions to the department and thanked him for choosing GCOE as a host for such a programme. She also highlighted that such a training to the teachers and scholars will foster their productivity further and bring out new innovative ideas which will lead to the progression and development of society.

Dr. Amitabh Kundu (Resource person from JNU) and Dr. Salahuddin Qureshi (Resource person from Aligarh Muslim University) were special invitees of the event .The valedictory ceremony was organised by the organising committee of GCOE in collaboration with Coordination cell of Higher Education Department.

Sd / PRINCIPAL

GCOE